

PUBLIC MEETING NOTICE

Invisible Costs:

The $122 Million Price Tag of Naval Air Station Whidbey Island

Presentation by Michael H. Shuman

Sponsored by Sustainable Economy Collaborative sustainable-economy-collaborative.com

Tues, March 28 7pm to 9pm Pacific Rim Institute 180 Parker Road, Coupeville	Wed, March 29 7pm to 9pm Langley United Methodist Church 301 Anthes Avenue, Langley
--	--

Mr. Shuman will present government data showing the costs borne by the taxpayers of Island County including:

- $5.7 million annually in lost sales and property taxes
- At least $2.3 million in annual costs to local health care system
- Property value losses of $9.8 million and rising

Question and Answer Period to Follow the Presentation

Michael H. Shuman

Attorney, economist, author and entrepreneur has authored or co-authored nine books, nearly 100 articles, and lectures worldwide on sustainable economies. <http://michaelshuman.com/>

Sustainable Economy Collaborative is working to foster a greater understanding of how to balance the costs and benefits of Whidbey's largest employer in order to create a healthy, diverse and sustainable local economy.

Full report available at: <https://sustainable-economy-collaborative.com/report/>